Dear Dr. Schwartz:

This is in response to your e-mail of June 18, 2005 to the Office of the Naval Inspector General, in which you request that our office provide you with a complaint number.

As a matter of policy, all communications that come through our office are assigned a case number regardless if we direct an investigation or not. While we have assigned Navy Hotline Case Number 20050489 to your e-mail, you have not identified a specific allegation for our office to review. Therefore, no action will be taken regarding your communication. We invite you to review our website <http://www.ig.navy.mil/> for additional information on the hotline process and the types of complaints that are appropriate for the Inspector General.

We hope this information is of assistance.

Sincerely,
