Dear Dr. Schwartz:

This is in response to your e-mail of July 21, 2005 to the Office of the Naval Inspector General, in which you request that we review your entire web site in order to identify the allegations regarding your complaint.

We previously directed you to our website to provide you with information regarding matters appropriate for the Office of the Naval Inspector General to investigate; the complaint process; and how to file a complaint within our established policy. Although we inspect, investigate, or inquire into any and all matters of importance to the Department of the Navy, we are not a part of the process that is involved in the development of either National Policy, or National Military Strategy; and it would be inappropriate for us to attempt to usurp those responsible for development of those policies.

We have determined that your complaint does not warrant an investigation by our office and consider this matter closed.

Sincerely,
